

Skipper Otto

Job Description

Distribution Team Member - Part time casual Skipper Otto's Community Supported Fishery

Role Overview

The Distribution Team Member is an important part of Skipper Otto. The role works in close conjunction with the Distribution Manager and will be responsible for much of the logistics of moving seafood during the busy May-Dec season.

Specific Responsibilities

The Distribution Team Member will:

- Participate in packing activities for orders at False Creek Fishermen's Wharf.
- Track, maintain, and enter accurate records for inventory
- Be responsible for moving large (and small) quantities of seafood in fish totes and on pallets using company vehicles, fork lifts, pallet jacks, and other equipment as trained by the management team.
- Distribute seafood at member pick-ups and communicate the full boat-to-fork story of the seafood in a friendly, approachable manner.
- Ensure inventory is kept at appropriate temperatures at all stages of distribution.
- Maintain clear communication with the management team about all aspects of the role from daily packing, to driving, to pick-ups
- Represent the company in a responsible and friendly way in all interactions with members, suppliers and community partners.

Your Qualifications

- Physically capable of lifting and moving 50lb boxes
- Able to stand while working during your shifts
- Familiarity with and interest in sustainable food systems, and/or fishing
- Good communication skills, both verbal and written
- Self-motivated; able to see opportunities and act on them independently
- Enthusiastic, fun, positive, and personable
- Creative, flexible, and reliable
- Team player

Preferred

- Current BC drivers' licence with a clean driver's abstract and preferably with experience with driving trucks and vans
- Forklift driving experience

Compensation

The position offers a starting wage of $20 per hour.
